

Hanford Reach National Monument

2002 Big Game Hunting Regulations

The regulations for hunting on the Hanford Reach National Monument were inadvertently omitted from the 2002 State of Washington publication. Please consult the Washington State big game hunting pamphlet for statewide regulations and Game Management Unit (GMU) information.

You must contact private landowners for permission to hunt any areas adjacent the Monument.

Note that modern rifles and handguns are not allowed on the Monument.

Modern Firearm (Shotgun Only)

White-tailed deer — 12-25 October — GMU 278 & GMU 381 - any buck

Mule deer — 12-20 October — GMU 278 - 3 point minimum; GMU 381 - any deer

Archery

White-tailed deer — 1-30 September — GMU 278 - any deer

Mule deer — 1-15 September — GMU 278 - 3 point minimum; GMU 381 - any deer

Mule deer — 16-30 September — GMU 278 - 3 point minimum or antlerless; GMU 381 - any deer

Muzzleloader

White-tailed deer — 5-9 October — GMU 381 - any buck

Mule deer — 5-9 October — GMU 381 - any deer

Late Muzzleloader

Mule deer — 22 November - 8 December — GMU 381 - 3 point minimum or antlerless

Elk (Shotgun Only for Modern Firearm)

Specified tag holders (EA, EM, EF) — 26 October - 15 November — Grant, Adams, Franklin Counties - any elk

Elk for GMU 372 (Adjacent the ALE)

Modern firearm

31 August -13 September — antlerless

14-15 September — any elk

6-7 October — antlerless

8-11 October — any elk

26 October - 3 November — any elk

Archery

20 November - 8 December — any elk

Please call our office if you have any questions — 509/371-1801.